From the President

A New Year. A new beginning! Let's all welcome 2025 with excitement and enthusiasm! I hope everyone enjoyed the holiday's and now it's time to get back to work!

We have proven time and time again that the voice of Wynmoor is a powerful one. When we stand together as a community, we can accomplish great things. Our united opposition to the Monarch Landfill expansion is a testament to our strength and determination. In November, we stood strong and packed the commission meeting, making our voices loud and clear. Thanks to our collective efforts, the commissioners deferred their decision, which will now take place on January 28, 2025. Stay tuned, Wynmoor. Together, we remain united and steadfast as we address these challenges, striving for environmental justice for our community and city. We will again prove our solidarity and be present at the January 28th Broward County Commission meeting.

More than just a fundraising walk, the American Cancer Society Relay For Life brings together passionate supporters who embody the American Cancer Society vision to end cancer as we know it, for everyone. This volunteer-led experience unites communities to celebrate cancer survivors, remember loved ones lost to cancer, and raise funds to improve the lives of people with cancer and their families through advocacy, research, and patient support to ensure everyone has an opportunity to prevent, detect, treat, and survive cancer.

Although each Relay For Life event embraces the uniqueness of the home community, every event does have the same four signature elements: a celebration of cancer survivors, a celebration of caregivers, a luminaria ceremony to honor and remember loved ones, and the opportunity to fight back against cancer.

We are eagerly looking forward to the much-anticipated Relay for Life event combined with Wynmoor's 50th Birthday celebration this February! Mark your calendars for February 18th through February 23rd—it's going to be a week to remember. Many different packages will be available for you to choose from. Our parade will be on Sunday, February 23rd at 9:00 a.m.

Relay for Life packages will be available for purchase Monday, Wednesday and Friday in the Country Club Library from 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m., at the Main Pool on Sundays from 1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. and before shows on Saturdays.

Important Reminder About Hotwire Installation

EVERYONE WANTS TO SAVE MONEY.

In order to save money, each resident must set up a consultation with Hotwire and make an appointment with a Hotwire representative. The initial installation is separate from your interview. You cannot get your internet connected until you set up an appointment with Hotwire.

To do so, you can visit the Hotwire office located in the Country Club Library or contact them directly at 561-509-5429.

Hotwire has improved their schedule; residents are holding them back by not registering.

It was an EXTRAORDINARY HONOR to be recognized by Congressman Jared Moskowitz in the Congressional Record of the House of Representatives. This recognition extends not only to me but also to the entire Wynmoor community celebrating the incredible spirit and dedication that make our home so special.

This honor belongs to every resident, colleague, and friend who has supported these efforts and shared in the vision of a strong, unified community. Thank you for allowing me the privilege to serve our community and for making our shared successes possible. Together, we continue to build a legacy of excellence and unity.

If you would like to read the proclamation in its entirety, please go to the link below:

<https://www.congress.gov/congressional-record/volume-170/issue-165/extensions-of-remarks-section/article/E1120-5>

In 2024, we've proudly completed many projects that have enhanced our community, with several more exciting initiatives planned for 2025. Our efforts remain focused on continuous improvement throughout the property, as our ultimate goal is to elevate Wynmoor to an entirely new level of excellence. Thank you for your ongoing support and enthusiasm!

Don't miss out on the incredible theater shows Wynmoor has to offer!

By Peter Hardis

Eight days after I was born, my mother woke me up in the morning. She breastfed and dressed me. Then she said to me, "Peter, this is going to be your lucky day." She took me into the living room where I could see that the house was filling up with lots of people, aunts, uncles, cousins, friends of my parents, along with kids of all ages. There was a huge spread of food on a large table with every dairy and fish product you could think of. All of a sudden someone picked me up and started passing me around from one person to the next. As I was being passed around each person made some kind of comment about me. Two comments I distinctly remember to this day; Sarah, my mother's sister, said to my mother, "Give him time, all newborns are funny looking." The second was when I heard Lillian, my father's cousin say, "Irving, get here quick! Take a look at this." Irving came running over. He looked me straight in my face, stuck out his entire tongue, put his index finger on the tip of his tongue and with his other hand he held his nose and said, "uughh!" Lillian replied, "I could not have said it better!"

Two hours into the festivities the doorbell rang and in walks a shriveled up old man. My mother shouts to everyone, "The mohel is here!" As soon as she said that her friend Valerie fainted. Then the mohel, with a very thick Yiddish accent yells out, "Where's the boychik already, I'm in a big hurry. I've got 3 more of these to do today!" My mother hands me over to him. He puts my little behind in the palm of his hand and with no other way of supporting me, he raises me so high that my head almost hit the ceiling. All the while I was crying my head off. He danced around in circles singing Jewish prayers while displaying me to the entire crowd. Then he lays me down on a table covered with a white towel. As he was putting me down on a table covered with a white towel, the back of my head crashed into it with a loud thud. Then he barks out, "Where are the Godparents already? I don't have all day!" My great uncle Abe and my great aunt Ida came running up to the table. He orders them to hold my feet and arms tightly against the table. Then he takes out from his long black ripped coat a small worn-out disgusting looking black leather bag. He opens the bag and takes out a roll of scotch tape and two paper clips. He mutters to himself, "Where the hell is my knife? Oh good, there it is." Everyone gasped when they saw him remove something that looked like a steak knife from the bag. That's when great aunt Ida fainted. Then he put his filthy finger into a glass of wine and shoved that same finger in my mouth. "There, that should knock this kid out!" He then took the knife and began to operate. That's when most of the guests started to drop like flies. Suddenly and without warning he screams to my father, "Call for an ambulance immediately! Your damn son was so herky-jerky, he made me miss. I'm going to put a tourniquet on his 'shmeckle' to stop the bleeding until you get him to the hospital." Then he ran out of the house. Nine hours after my mother spoke those words, "Peter, this is going to be your lucky day," I was in the hospital. The only lucky thing that happened to me on that day was when I wound up in the experienced hands of Dr. Diamond. Magically, using the technique we now call 'reconstructive surgery' he was able to build me a new one.

On With The Show-down

By Patrick Lewis-Moors

And it was the Gala, the show of the season, the show of shows. Emanuel Ax, Jaime Laredo, Isaac Stern, and Yo-Yo Ma all on the same stage and all at the same time! What a stage and theatre for that matter-The Stanley theatre, seating almost three thousand people, in the heart of Utica, New York. All the crowned heads from the surrounding counties were there to see the show.

The performance started with Isaac Stern playing a violin solo. Then he was joined by the others, each coming out one at a time. Lost in the beautiful music, the time just flew by and soon it was time for the intermission.

I got up with my friend to acquire a refreshment and headed to the front. The area was just packed with one venue offering Saranac beer while the other had both wine and soft drinks. It was basically men in the Saranac line, getting their beer and stepping aside to drink. We stood there wearing our navy-blue blazers and gray flannel pants, making some small talk while the ladies stood in the wine line.

Then it happened; a lady appeared from the audience wearing a formal red dress with a large bow in the back. There was another lady further ahead in that line with the exact same formal dress with a large bow in the back. Their eyes met and their faces turned to cold stone. We men just stood there drinking our Saranac beer in our navy-blue blazers and gray flannel pants, never missing a second of the scene, but not bothering to say a word, just watching. The latecomer, determined to hold her ground, began acting a bit like a model, flaunting both herself and her dress. This was just too much for the original lady, who quickly slipped out of line and faded back into the theater. Wearing our navy-blue blazers and gray flannel pants, we men just stood there and finished our Saranac's before returning to our seats to enjoy the rest of the show.

book review

By Beatrice Horowitz

The Porpoise

By Mark Haddon

This gorgeously written, often confusing novel layers the modern-day tale of an incestuous relationship between a British father and daughter on top of a rendition of the ancient story of Appolinus of Tyre. The play "Pericles, Prince of Tyre," perhaps partly written by Shakespeare, tells one version of the story, in which a king tragically loses his wife and then develops a hidden relationship with his daughter. The author starts in modern day France, but soon travels to the eastern Mediterranean when Greece dominated that region before the Roman Empire's rise. Occasionally he stops by Elizabethan England. See why I was confused? The rich language and wonderful descriptions of life aboard sailing ships and in cities during that remote time made this book an enjoyable read for me.

Birnam Wood

By Eleanor Catton

This story of people variously involved in guerrilla gardening, drone-driven stealing and juvenile journalism takes place in New Zealand. The action escalates in criminality from mild trespassing through levels of deception and thievery to mortal danger. Without giving anything away, I can say that I found none of these characters sympathetic. Some were more believable than others, but nobody showed any sign of a sense of humor. This book was a New York Times Notable book for 2023. Note to self: not all lists are worth pursuing. The title alludes to MacBeth and should have warned me of the darkness to come.

Israel Network

Year Ends With Several Scam Alerts For Coconut Creek

I wish I could say it ended better. We issued several Scam Alerts on our social media pages before the close of 2024. You can find these on our Facebook page, Instagram account, or by following us on Nextdoor. If social media is just not your thing, you can periodically check our website for Scam Alerts. It's www.coconutcreek.net/pd.

In case you missed it, here are the alerts we issued since my last column:

The Bank Representative Phone Scam is the basis for this Coconut Creek Police Department Scam Alert. A Coconut Creek man recently contacted us after someone posing as a representative from his bank called him unexpectedly and told him there was significant fraud going on with his account. This was news to the victim because he hadn't noticed anything out of the ordinary. The scammer kept him talking, gaining valuable information such as his account login and password. The fraudster used that information to transfer money out of the victim's account. Luckily, the bank caught it in time before dispersing the funds. Remember that no one from your bank would ever call you out of the blue for any reason. If you get a similar phone call, just hang up.

The Medicare Scam is the reason for this Coconut Creek Police Department Scam Alert. A woman recently called us after she had given her full name, date of birth, address, and social security number to someone posing as a Medicare representative on the phone. The scammer told her they were changing cards and needed that information to facilitate the transition. Right after she did it, the woman didn't feel right about it, called Medicare, and learned it was a scam. Remember that no one from Medicare would ever call you asking for any information. If you get a similar phone call, just hang up.

Seniors and phone scams are the basis for this Coconut Creek Police Department Scam Alert. While anyone, of any age, is susceptible to falling for a phone scam, the fraudsters often target seniors in particular. This happened recently to 79-year-old man here in Coconut Creek. A scammer called him posing as a representative from Best Buy. The scammer said he owed him a $199 fee and proceeded to talk the victim into giving him access to his computer. The scammer then transferred a large amount of money out of the victim's bank account and into one he controlled. Always remember that no one representing any company would ever call you about an unpaid bill or fee. It's a scam. So just hang up.

The Lending Club Scam is the basis for this Coconut Creek Police Department Scam Alert. The Lending Club is a financial services corporation and A+-rated by the Better Business Bureau. However, like many other loan companies, the scammers like to impersonate Lending Club representatives over the phone. This happened to a Coconut Creek man recently. A fraudster called him pretending to be from the Lending Club. He offered a great "rate" on a loan, along with other benefits. Of course, none of it was true. The scammer had the victim go to the store and buy gift cards and give him all the numbers on the back. The bad guys will usually claim this helps "pay fees" or expedite the process. As Lending Club explains on its website, it would never call or email you asking to do anything of the sort. If you get a similar phone call, just hang up.

Keep reading this column for future scam detection and crime prevention tips.

POETS and POETRY

He's My Best Friend (Song)

Written by Joan Friess

November 22, 2024

*He's my anchor. He's my life
I am glad to be his wife
He is always there for me
And that's where he would be*

*When he smiles, I want to smile.
We've been together for a while.
Sometimes when we differ
Do I want to leave him? NEVER.*

*He's my best friend
He's my best friend*

(Chorus)

I think this sounds like this can't be but there's no better fit than we.

*He's my guy and I know why.
We're in love, he and I.*

*I know that we will always be together for eternity
He is all mine
And that's just fine.*

*I'm telling you today.
I'd have my life no other way.
With this fellow, I will be.
For life, it's him and me.*

*He's my best friend.
He's my best friend.*

(Chorus)

*I think this sounds like this can't be
but there's no better fit than we.*

*He's my guy and I know why.
We're in love, he and I.*

*He's my best friend.
He's my best friend.*

Laugh Your Stress Away in the New Year!

By Manohara Ferretti, MDiv.

Bernie Siegel, MD in his book "Love, Medicine and Miracles" talks about the healing properties of laughter. Even a simple smile can uplift yourself and others. The movements of the many muscles used to create a smile are transmitted via the nervous system to all parts of your body, affecting your whole self. Even the hint of a smile "is enough to relax all the muscles in our face, to banish all worries and fatigue. A tiny bud of a smile on our lips nourishes awareness and calms us miraculously. It returns to us the peace we thought we had lost." (Thich Nhat Hanh, Peace is every Step).

Laughter can remind us of what life is and what is most important to us. It can bring to us an awareness that all of life can be celebrated.

Once there were three mystics. Nobody knew their names. They were known as the "Three Laughing Saints" because they never did anything else; they simply laughed. They came to the marketplace and laughed with their bellies shaking. Soon it became infectious, and others would start laughing. The whole marketplace began to laugh. Just a few minutes before, it was an ugly place...filled with greed, sadness, anger, and jealousy. These three mystics changed the whole quality of the marketplace with their laughter. All the people suddenly forgot what they had come to purchase and sell. Nobody bothered and for a few seconds a new world opened. Everyone became relaxed and understood how laughter can transform.

Whenever you have a good laugh, don't you feel so much better? Don't you forget all your problems for just a few moments? Laughter actually helps relieve tension in the body and mind. It's a fun way to restore you. Taking things less seriously and lightening your being. Seeing things in a new way and releasing our seriousness. Try one of these simple experiments for a week and see how things change in your life:

-Each morning upon waking, before opening your eyes, stretch like a cat. After a few minutes of stretching, with eyes still closed, begin to laugh. Laugh for five minutes. At first you may need to force it a little, but soon the sound of your attempt will cause genuine laughter! It will change the whole nature of your day.

-Gather with friends for the sole purpose of telling jokes. Laughing together is a great way to develop camaraderie, make new memories and have a great time.

-Watch every comedy show (sitcoms, late night, funny movies) to tickle that Clown Chakra of yours!

-Remember to breathe and smile throughout the day.

How can you hold onto stress and anxiety when you don't take things so seriously?

With laughter, you begin to see the humor in everything; in your disappointments, your pain, and even in yourself! Laughter can give you a new perspective. With laughter, your relationships can improve, your health can improve, and you can find peace of mind.

RELAXATION After The Holidays

With the hectic holiday season behind us, now is the time to enjoy the beautiful weather Florida is known for. Warm sunny days, light breezes and best of all, low humidity. These are the perfect weather conditions for a cruise on our beautiful private yacht with your best friends and family members. In celebration of the new year, "Slick Idea Too," a private 65-foot yacht, is offering 3-hour cruises for only $1,650. Come February 1st the price will raise by $150 to its normal rate. For those who don't want the fun to end, we also offer 4-hour cruises for $2,250 and 6 hours for $2,850.

Our yacht is available to you and 12 of your friends/family to experience a leisurely cruise through the intracoastal waterway or along the Atlantic coast. You will be able to relax on the air-conditioned flybridge, hang out in the salon, or sit on the yacht's stern while it cruises past luxurious mansions, mega yachts, and skyscrapers. Of course, you can also simply anchor out, jump into the water and use our yacht as the ultimate swim platform.

This yacht is spacious enough to accommodate a maximum of 13 guests.

Each private cruise includes a captain and 1st mate, fuel, ice, soda, and water. It is equipped with refrigerators, a microwave, ice machine, sound systems, bathrooms, sunbathing pads, and Star Link WiFi. You may bring white wine (sorry no red wine, it stains our beautiful teak decks) and any spirits and mixers you want. Feel free to bring hors d'oeuvres as well, but if you want us take care of that, we can do so for a nominal fee.

For those who like to think ahead, we would like to remind you that our boat can be chartered to celebrate 4th of July fireworks, view the annual air show, or visit the 2025 boat and yacht shows. In addition, our luxury yacht is the perfect environment to celebrate anniversaries, Valentine's Day, birthdays, bridal showers, baby showers, wedding proposals and more. We also offer sunset dinner cruises.

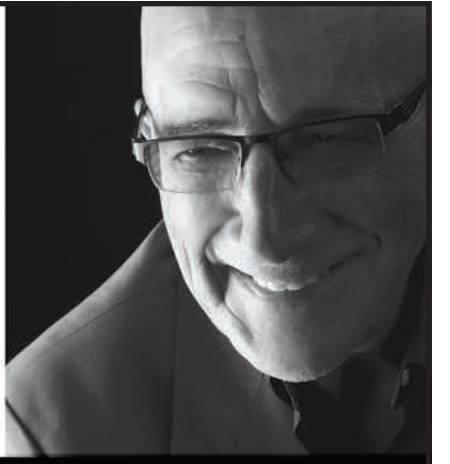

For the ultimate cruise, we offer private trips to the Florida Keys or the Bahamas. If this is one of the items on your bucket list, we can coordinate all the details for this adventure. Cost will be quoted once we know the details of your adventure.

Gift certificates are available, which are perfect, for those occasions where you are trying to find a unique present to give to someone celebrating a special day. To buy gift certificates or schedule a cruise, please call Bill Borgo at 815-482-6775 or Chris Moore at 954-494-6760.

Is Your Health Worth More Than Garbage?

By Hillel Cohen, DrPH, MPH

Mount Trashmore is the 210 foot-tall landfill mountain alongside Wiles Road, between Powerline and the Turnpike. You can see it, and sometimes smell it, from miles away. Waste Management (WM) is the $91 BILLION national corporation that owns and operates the Monarch Hill Landfill known as Mt. Trashmore. WM wants to increase its profits by expanding Mt. Trashmore, seriously hurting our air and water quality. In other words, they want to increase their profits at the expense of our health. The corporation has asked the Broward County Commission to allow them to expand the landfill area by 24 acres and to let it grow to 325 feet tall –taller than the Statue of Liberty. Whether they can get away with it will depend on whether we can successfully fight back.

At times the odor from the landfill, even at its current size, can be pretty bad. And like all landfills, this one leaks methane into the air which contributes to global warming. But an even more immediate problem is that decomposing garbage and construction debris produces toxic liquids inside the mountain that seep down and leach into the water table and pollute the soil. Polluted soil can become airborne as toxic dust, a direct health threat, because it contaminates our air and falls anywhere the wind takes it. A contaminated water table can wind up in our drinking water, another direct health threat. To prevent this, landfills are supposed to have a lining underneath called a barrier, but the barrier for Mt. Trashmore is almost 60 years old and is likely deteriorating. The barrier that was installed decades ago would violate today's regulation standards. It is only allowed because of "grandfathering" since it was built before modern regulations were put in place. Much of the proposed expanded 24 acres would not be covered even by the old barrier. And the added millions of tons of weight of an additional 100 feet of garbage and refuse would greatly increase the amount of toxic liquids that will permeate the existing inadequate and deteriorating barrier. In short, the bad situation for our health of the current landfill will be made much worse by the expansion.

Waste Management argues that the refuse "has to go somewhere." In fact, most of the garbage collected from Coconut Creek and Deerfield Beach already goes somewhere else—a few hours north in a much less populated area. WM wants the expansion mostly for demolition and construction debris. They argue that transporting waste to Okeechobee or elsewhere would cost more and lead to higher prices. Supposedly, they just want to save the consumer money. That argument is the same false argument corporations use when they oppose raising wages supposedly to keep prices down. Frankly, the argument is like Mt. Trashmore—a big pile of garbage. Corporations are not in business to save consumers money. Corporations are in business to make the highest profit possible. Thus, they sell their products and services for the highest prices market conditions of supply and demand allow. Given the market price, higher costs mean lower profits. By expanding Mt. Trashmore wider and higher, Waste Management can lower their costs and thereby increase their profits. On their website, WM brags that in 2024 they increased their profit margin to 29.7% by reducing transportation costs—exactly what they are trying to do with the landfill expansion. As a giant corporation operating in a small city environment, WM has a lot of money which can buy a lot of political influence to get their way.

The day before the Broward County Commissioners were scheduled to vote on the expansion proposal, Waste Management met with Coconut Creek City Commissioners trying to get them to support the expansion. WM offered the city financial "incentives" (some might call it a bribe) if only they would endorse the project. On the urging of Wynmoor Council President and Coconut Creek Commissioner, Jackie Railey, the Coconut Creek Commissioners turned down the WM "incentives" - deciding instead to protect our health. Deerfield Beach Commissioners did the same. Wynmoor, Coconut Creek and Deerfield Beach mobilized residents and elected officials to come to the Broward Commissioners meeting on November 12th to loudly object to the plan. What was supposed to be a quick vote in favor of WM didn't happen. In the face of the strong opposition, the Commission voted to postpone their decision until the January 28th meeting—ostensibly after a report from the Solid Waste Commission is supposed to come out.

November 12th was a partial and temporary victory, but WM is not going to give up easily. They will try to push their money and political influence to get what they want. They will try to divide Coconut Creek and Deerfield Beach from the other cities of Broward County who are not directly affected by the health hazards of Mount Trashmore. We will have to fight harder.

If we fight, there is no guarantee we will win. But if we don't fight, it is guaranteed that we will lose. So, let's plan on turning out to the Broward Commissioners meeting on January 28th. Let's do whatever we have to do to protect our health and quality of life by stopping the expansion of Mount Trashmore.

What Legal Documents Are Most Important Now?

By Martin Zevin, Attorney

The pandemic changed almost everything. But certain legal documents are more important than ever.

If you need to be hospitalized in Florida, it is imperative that you have a Designation of Health Care Surrogate and Living Will with proper wording so there will be no problems. Do not rely on generic forms obtained online. Florida hospitals are requiring specific HIPAA compliant language not found on generic forms. Your Surrogate will be able to make medical decisions for you if you are unable to communicate.

Even if the hospital does not allow any visitors, your Surrogate will be able to talk to the doctors and make decisions on the phone or e-mail. Your Surrogate does not need to be present in the hospital. All your Surrogate needs to do is e-mail or fax a copy of your document to the hospital. If there is no hope to save you, that Surrogate would be authorized to "pull the plug" based on the Living Will.

The Durable Power of Attorney is also important to allow someone to take over your legal and financial affairs. The Florida law changed in 2011. If you have an old Durable Power of Attorney, it should be redone. Again, do not rely on generic forms. Our current Power of Attorney is 26 pages to conform to Florida law.

If you are married, you still need to do a Health Care Surrogate, Living Will and Power of Attorney.

If you should die, your Will or Revocable Living Trust will determine who inherits your assets. The Trust is important to consider if you own your home or other real estate, because it avoids Probate. Probate can tie up your property for many months and prevent your heirs from selling without a Court Order. They would have to continue to pay taxes, maintenance, mortgage, utilities etc. in addition to thousands of dollars in attorney fees and court costs. A Life Estate Deed is another option to consider to avoid probate. Your attorney can discuss the different options and the benefits of each one.

I am providing free personal or phone consultations to discuss Estate Planning and protecting yourself if you are incapacitated. In these unsettling times, putting your house in order can provide peace of mind. Once you have valid documents, hopefully you won't need them. Yogi Berra used to say: "That's the insurance when you don't have it, that's when you need it." Call me at 954-569-4878. My address is 3275 W. Hillsboro Blvd., Suite 204, Deerfield Beach, Florida 33442. My website is www.martinzevinpa.com and my e-mail address is martinzevin@netzero.com.

Are You Living With, Or Worried About Someone Suffering With Chronic Back Pain?

By Leading Back Pain Expert, Todd James

Do you, or someone you love, suffer with back pain? Does the pain get worse when you stand or walk? Do you experience pain, numbness or tingling into your butt or down your leg? Do you have pain when you sit for long periods or drive? Are you afraid your pain will get worse if you don't do anything about it? Has the pain gotten so bad, that you avoid many activities that you used to enjoy?

If you are 55+ and answered YES to any of these questions, then please read on because I have some special information about relief of your back pain.

It's a shame so many people think their options for dealing with back pain are rest, pain killers, or maybe worse, injections or even surgery. Often these solutions are only temporary, because they don't address the true cause of your back pain, but just mask the symptoms. Others believe there is nothing that can be done, and they will just have to suffer through the pain.

If you or someone you love is experiencing back pain and are wondering if you are doing the right things for your back, I would like to offer a free guide I have created to answer those questions. In this guide, Erasing Back Pain: How to Avoid the 9 Most Painful Mistakes and What You Should Be Doing Instead, you will find information about what will not help ease your back pain and how to make the right choices to get you out of back pain and on the road to enjoying an active, healthy lifestyle again.

I'm Todd James, Physical Therapist and I have been helping 1000s of people 55+ over the last 2 decades find quick, natural, long lasting relief from back pain. I've put together this guide because in easing your back pain it's not just about doing the right things, but also about avoiding the wrong things. When you choose the right path, your recovery from back pain will be much more effective.

If you are currently held back from getting a good night's sleep, being able to walk with friends, getting out on the golf course, or playing with the grand-kids, I invite you to visit www.coconutcreektherapy.com/backpain to claim your free guide. If you prefer, give us a call at 954-972-1200 and we'll be happy to assist you.

Don't let back pain take the joy out of your life. Get started on your path to a pain free active life!

Proudly marking 18 years of success and dedication. I'm honored to be your trusted Real Estate expert in Wynmoor Country Club. ## BROWARD COUNTY PROPERTY APPRAISER

Does My Homestead Exemption Automatically Renew?

After your initial application for Homestead Exemption has been approved, it automatically renews each year unless there is a change of ownership or eligible use of your homesteaded property. Each January, our office mails a Homestead Renewal Notice and "Change Card" to all Homesteaded properties. Florida law requires the property owner to notify the Property Appraiser of any change which may affect homestead eligibility. This "Change Card" provides an easy way to communicate these important changes to our office.

If there are NO changes to the use and/or ownership of your property, simply keep the card as your receipt that your Homestead Exemption has automatically renewed for another year. However, if there are changes, please mark the Change Card accordingly when you receive it and return it to our office.

If your name is not printed in the "Homesteaded Owners" section on this card, it means you are not protected by Homestead Exemption at this property. You may be on title to your property, but not receiving Homestead Exemption. If you are eligible for Homestead Exemption on this property, but your name is not listed in the Homesteaded owner section of the renewal you must complete your own Homestead Exemption application. You can apply online at web.bcpa.net and click on "Exemptions & Classifications."

If you are a co-owner, surviving spouse, trust beneficiary or otherwise believe you are eligible for this exemption, you must file your own Homestead Exemption application to receive the benefit. If you have any questions relating to the death of the owner, the Change Card or need assistance in filing for Homestead or other tax-saving exemptions, please visit our website at web.bcpa.net or contact our Customer Service Department at 954-357-6830.

Where Did My Portability Savings Go?

A portability deduction is only posted to your property record page in the first year you receive your new Homestead Exemption. The portability savings from the first year form the basis of your new Save Our Homes value on a going forward basis and -- in subsequent years -- will rise or fall based upon market just value changes and the 3% cap, as your new Save Our Homes value has incorporated your portability savings. When our website is updated to display subsequent year property values, your portability deduction is no longer shown independently because it is already factored into your new Assessed/Save Our Homes value.

If my office can ever be of assistance to you, please do not hesitate to contact me directly at martykiar@bcpa.net

The Joy of Being Immersed In The Study Of Medieval Art At Milan's Brera Art Museum

By Barry Isaac

In late November, I spent one fine day being immersed in the study of splendid works of Art at Milan, Italy's Brera Art Museum. Originally the Brera was a late 16th Century Palace built by the Jesuits on the grounds of San Maria de Brera Humiliti Monastery. The Jesuits used this palace as a cultural center by creating a top notch school, library, and astronomical center. I received this information by reading, "Milan and The Lakes" a travel book produced by DK Eyewitness Travel-Penguin Random House. Since 1809, the Brera has been an art museum featuring stellar paintings produced by European Painters.

Since the Brera's collection is so prodigious, I have restricted this review to its splendid works of Art from the 13th Century to 1425 AD-Medieval Period. All of these works of Art have devotional themes. Most of the works that I discussed employed tempera on wood panel.

From the 13th Century, Master of San Verano's "Saint Veranus with 2 Angels and 6 Scenes from Saint Veranus' life" was an auspicious start to my Medieval Art Studies that day. Saint Veranus was a French Saint who was a Bishop Saint, famous for conquering a menacing dragon. This painting has Byzantine characteristics.

The following 14th Century Italian Paintings especially captivated me; Barnaba Da Modena's "Adoration of Shepherds" (Genoese Master, painting has a combination of Byzantine and Naturalistic Characteristics), Giovanni Da Milano's "Christ Enthroned With Angels in Adoration," Ambrogio Lorenzetti's "Madonna and Christ Child" (a fine exemplar of Sienese Medieval Painting), Lorenzo Veneziano's "Madonna and Child With Saint Anthony Abbott, Saint Victor, St. Catherine of Alexandria, St. Nicholas, St. Mark, and St. Lucy," shows Byzantine influence in Venetian Art in the 14th Century, Giovanni Baronzio's "Scenes from Life of Saint Columba" (Riminese Master, Saint Columba brought Christianity to Scotland), Bernardo Daddi's "Saint Lawrence" (important Florentine Master), Bartolomeo and Jacopino da Reggio's "Reliquary Triptych With Crucifixion, Annunciation with 30 Figures of Saints," a very punctilious painting to say the least. Giovanni Da Bologna's "Madonna and Child Enthroned With Angels," Master of Misericordia's "Evangelist in Art of Writing," a very naturalistic painting, Andrea Di Bartolo and Giorgio di Andrea's "Polytych With Coronation of Virgin" and Master of Mocchirolo's "Frescoes of Oratory of Mocchirolo," among others.

From the very early 15th Century, I appreciated fine paintings by Niccolo Di Pietro "Coronation of Virgin," International Gothic, Venetian Naturalistic Painting, Gentile Da Fabriano "Crucifixion," and the Spanish Primitive Painter, Pere Serra "Annunciation, Valencia." By the time these paintings were produced the Papacy had already returned to Rome, after being based in Avignon, France from 1309 to 1377.

The days that I spent at the Brera were very enlightening and I am thankful that I had the privilege of being there.

Acupuncture and Elite Athletes

By Marcus Smith, Licensed Acupuncture Physician

As the science of sports training continues to evolve, professional athletes are turning to alternative and holistic approaches to enhance their performance and recovery.

Among these, acupuncture, and Asian Medicine, including techniques like cupping, have gained significant popularity for their ability to address various physical and mental aspects crucial for athletic success.

Athletes such as LeBron James, Michael Phelps, Tom Brady, and even golfers like Tiger Woods have openly credited acupuncture for expediting their recovery from injuries and maintaining peak physical condition. These elite athletes recognize the profound impact of acupuncture in reducing inflammation, managing pain, and supporting overall well-being, making it an integral part of their training and recovery regimens.

From basketball icon LeBron James to swimming legend Michael Phelps, these elite competitors swear by acupuncture's ability to expedite their recovery from injuries and the physical toll of rigorous training sessions.

So, why do these top-tier athletes choose acupuncture? The answer lies in acupuncture's unique ability to address multiple facets of an athlete's well-being. One of its primary benefits is the reduction of inflammation. Intensive training and competition often lead to inflammation in the muscles and joints, contributing to soreness and a longer recovery period. Acupuncture's strategic placement of needles helps stimulate blood flow and activate the body's natural anti-inflammatory responses, facilitating a quicker recovery process.

Another key aspect is pain management. Athletes frequently grapple with acute and chronic pain resulting from injuries or the physical strain of their sport. Acupuncture's analgesic effects, attributed to the release of endorphins and modulation of pain signals in the nervous system, provide athletes with a drug-free alternative for managing pain and discomfort.

Acupuncture promotes tissue healing, a crucial factor for athletes dealing with injuries. The insertion of hair-thin needles triggers microtrauma, prompting the body to initiate its healing processes. This not only accelerates the repair of damaged tissues but also enhances overall recovery, allowing athletes to return to peak performance levels quicker.

The Cupping Phenomenon: No, that is not a love bite!

Cupping therapy has emerged as a favored intervention for elite athletes wanting to enhance their physical well-being. Notable athletes like swimmer Michael Phelps, gymnast Alex Naddour, Olympic sprinter Usain Bolt, and NBA star Luka Doncic have all acknowledged cupping as a key component of their wellness regimens, attesting to its potential benefits for athletes across different sports.

One of the primary advantages of cupping therapy lies in its ability to improve blood circulation. Cupping involves the use of suction cups placed on specific areas of the body, creating a vacuum effect, and sometimes leaving a temporary circular impression on the skin, often mistaken for a bruise. This suction enhances blood circulation, promoting the efficient delivery of nutrients to muscles and facilitating the removal of metabolic waste. Improved blood circulation plays a pivotal role in supporting muscle recovery, reducing inflammation, and enhancing overall athletic performance.

Cupping has emerged as a valuable tool for muscle tightness, as well. The suction created by the cups helps release fascial restrictions, which are tight bands of connective tissue that can contribute to muscle tension, discomfort, and limited range-of-motion. By alleviating these restrictions, cupping therapy contributes to enhanced flexibility, reduced muscle tightness, and more effective pain management.

Service Equals Reward

By Sheriff Gregory Tony
Breaking The Silence

January marks National Human Trafficking Prevention Month—a month set aside to raise awareness about a pervasive crime that often occurs in plain sight within our communities. While many envision victims as children or women sold into slavery or the sex trade, the reality is far more complex. Human trafficking transcends age, gender and race, encompassing both forced labor and sexual exploitation.

The Broward Sheriff’s Office (BSO) Internet Crimes Against Children/Human Trafficking Unit (HTU) is dedicated to identifying instances of human trafficking, rescuing victims and empowering communities to join the fight against this heinous crime. The HTU investigates intricate cases of exploitation, often rooted in emotional and financial manipulation, working relentlessly to bring perpetrators to justice and provide support to those affected.

A notable example of HTU’s work is Operation Suite 16, a two-day anti-trafficking operation in partnership with local and state agencies. During the operation, HTU identified and assisted adult trafficking victims, connecting them to critical resources such as shelter, medical care and counseling to help them rebuild their lives. The operation also led to the arrests of individuals who targeted these vulnerable young women, exploiting their struggles with homelessness and addiction and coercing them into commercial sex acts, drug sales and fraudulent activities. This effort highlights the value of multi-agency operations and the meticulous work required to uncover and dismantle these operations.

Strong community partnerships are also critical to solving human trafficking cases. Through initiatives like the Stop Abuse, Fight Exploitation (S.A.F.E.)

Initiative, the HTU collaborates with prosecutors, code enforcement, local governments, regulatory agencies, homeowners and community leaders. Together, they work to identify, investigate and shut down sexually illicit businesses while preventing the recruitment of future victims.

The coordinated efforts of these operations and partnerships underscore the critical importance of interagency collaboration and community education. In addition to enforcement efforts, raising public awareness remains one of the most powerful tools in combating human trafficking. The HTU actively engages with neighborhoods, schools and organizations to educate the public on recognizing the warning signs of human trafficking, including isolation, poor physical health or lack of financial control, and who to call for help.

The BSO HTU remains steadfast in its mission to combat this crime, support survivors and protect the vulnerable. Through enforcement, education and collaboration, we can make a meaningful difference and put an end to human trafficking in our communities. Let us commit to being vigilant, compassionate and proactive in this crucial fight.

Sex, Sex, Sex. Got your attention now. Have you ever considered how Judaism thought about how individuals view themselves? This month we quote an article by Rachel Scheinerman, titled "The Eight Genders in the Talmud."

"Judaism has recognized nonbinary persons for millennia. Thought Binary gender was a modern concept? Think again. The ancient Jewish understanding of gender was far more nuanced than many assume.

The Talmud, a huge and authoritative compendium of Jewish legal traditions, contains in fact no less than 8 gender designations including:

1. Zachar, Male.
2. Nekevah, Female.
3. Androgynos, having both male and female characteristics.
4. Tumtum, lacking sexual characteristics.
5. Aylonit hamah, identified female at birth but later naturally developing male characteristics.
6. Aylonit adam, identified female at birth but later developing male characteristics through human intervention.
7. Saris hamah, identified male at birth but later naturally developing female characteristics.
8. Saris adam, identified male at birth and later developing female characteristics through human intervention.

In fact, not only did the rabbis recognize 6 genders that were neither male nor female, they had a tradition that the first human being was both. Versions of this midrash are found throughout rabbinic literature according to the Talmud." It was thought that Adam had both male and female faces and sex organs.

"For the rabbis, the androgynous wasn't just a thing of mythic past. The androgynous was in fact a recognized gender category in their present - though not with two heads, only both kinds of sex organs. The term appears no less than 32 times in the Mishnah and 283 times in the Talmud. Most of these citations are not variations on this myth, but rather discussions that consider how Jewish law (Halakhah) applies to one who has both male and female sexual characteristics."

Scheinerman goes on to quote Rabbi Yose in the Mishnah about how difficult it was to decide what obligations could or could not be done by androgynous people. The nonbinary populations are lumped together with other groups which do not fit neatly into their preconceived notions. The tumtum were easier to figure out.

"The rabbis also recognized that some people's sexual characteristics can change with puberty, either naturally or through intervention. Less common than the Androgynos and Tumtum, but still found throughout rabbinic texts, are the Aylonit, who is born with organs identified as female at birth but develops male characteristics at puberty or no sex characteristics at all, and the Saris, who is born with male identified organs and later develops features recognized as female (or no sex characteristics). These changes can happen naturally over time (saris hamah) or with human intervention (saris adam)."

Most of the discussions quoted were of a legal nature, which was the focus of the rabbis.

"A non-binary person who does not have the same halachic status as a male or female but is something else that is best described as ambiguous or in between, presented a halachic challenge that was not particularly foreign for the Rabbis, who discuss analogs in the animal and plant kingdoms. For example, the rabbinic texts describe a koi as an animal that is somewhere between wild and domesticated- and an etrog- yes, the beautiful citron that is essential for Sukkot- as between a fruit and a vegetable. Because they do not fit easily into common categories, the koi and the etrog require a special halachic consideration. The Rabbinic understanding of the world was that most categories, be they animal, vegetable, or mineral are imperfect descriptors of the world, either as it is or as it should be."

We think we have come a long way and are very sophisticated in our understanding of the human body, but do we really know more than our ancient rabbis? Maybe they understood more than we do.

We hope we have given you something to think about and discuss without rancor, and putting aside your pre-conceived notions about sexual characteristics.

Bridge Club

By Bram Hamovitch

Bridge players of all levels are welcome to join us in the East Wing of the theater building for our ACBL-sponsored duplicate games. We play on Tuesdays and Fridays at 12:30 p.m. (please arrive no later than 12:15 p.m.).

First, I would like to congratulate the 24 Wynmoor Bridge Club members who were silver point winners in November's Florida STaC game. They played at Wynmoor, but competed with all of the other ACBL clubs around the state. Job well done!

Lenny Fagen offers us free lessons that are open to anybody, prior to our Tuesday games. The lessons will start at 11:45 a.m. The theme of the lessons is "The Language of Bridge, Informal Lessons on How to Communicate With Your Partner." After the lesson, feel free to join our regular game, which starts at 12:30 p.m.

All bridge players are invited to join our weekly "Play & Learn" bridge sessions, which commence on Tuesday, January 7th and on Friday, January 10th. The sessions will be held from 9:30 - 11:30 a.m. in the East Wing. Please note that the Tuesday sessions are designed for "beginners" who have played at least a few times, but still need help with the basics. The Friday sessions are aimed at those who have a reasonably good grasp of the basics, but want to become more confident in their bidding, declaring, and defending.

More information about these lessons and our bridge club can be obtained at <https://sites.google.com/view/wynmoorbridge>

Chess Club

By Hillel Cohen

The Wynmoor Chess Club welcomes back seasonal residents and wishes all a Happy New Year! Perhaps getting back in the game (of chess) was not number 1 on your New Year's Resolution list, but it might be the easiest resolution to keep. We meet every Tuesday Evening from 6:30 p.m. to about 9:30 p.m. in Card Room 1 of the Clubhouse. All chess players at any level are welcome and no partner needed. There are no dues and no fees. Chess sets are provided. Games are casual and relaxed, so come and play. Masks are optional. If you haven't played since high school, don't worry - we hear that a lot. No one's keeping score or rankings and you'll be surprised at how much you remember. Besides, the point is to have a pleasant time while exercising our brains.

WLGA

By Linda Sue Lewis-Moors

As of press time, WLGA (Wynmoor Ladies Golf Association) members were planning an exciting Toys for Kids event on December 17th. Activities included a scramble golf tournament and delicious lunch. After the luncheon, members of the Coconut Creek Police Department received the numerous gifts club members and other generous Wynmoor residents donated, which the department members would distribute to local school-age children. The annual event was enhanced by a raffle game. Local merchants and Wynmoor woodshop craftsmen donated prizes, and luncheon attendees purchased raffle tickets for chances to win those items they preferred. Proceeds were donated to the Toys for Kids fund.

Members are looking forward to January events, including our monthly WGA (Wynmoor Golf Association) Guys and Dolls coed golf scramble and meal. Also coming up is the annual championship tournament. Eligibility is based on play during the 2024 golf season.
